EXPLANATIONS

FORM B9E (2/4/13)

Filing of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by or against the debtor(s) listed on the front side, (or the existing case under another chapter has been converted to chapter 11). Chapter 11 allows a debtor to reorganize or liquidate pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless confirmed by the court. You may be sent a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you might have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will be sent notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtor will remain in possession of the debtor's property and may continue to operate any business.
Creditors Generally May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code § 362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the debtor by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the debtor; repossessing the debtor's property; starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures; and garnishing or deducting from the debtor's wages. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although the debtor can request the court to extend or impose a stay.
Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The debtor (both spouses in a joint case) must be present with required original government-issued photo identification and proof of the social security number (or, if applicable, Tax ID) at the meeting to be questioned under oath by the trustee and by creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and concluded at a later date specified in a notice filed with the court. The court, after notice and a hearing, may order that the United States trustee not convene the meeting if the debtor has filed a plan for which the debtor solicited acceptances before filing the case. As mandated by the Department of Homeland Security, ALL visitors (except minors accompanied by an adult) to any federal building or courthouse, must present a current, valid, government issued photo identification (e.g., drivers license, state identification card, passport, or immigration card).
Claims	A Proof of Claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. You may look at the schedules that have been or will be filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office. If your claim is scheduled and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, it will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless you file a Proof of Claim or you are sent further notice about the claim. Whether or not your claim is scheduled, you are permitted to file a Proof of Claim. If your claim is not listed at all or if your claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, then you must file a Proof of Claim by the "Deadline to File a Proof of Claim" listed on the front side, or you might not be paid any money on your claim against the debtor in the bankruptcy case and may be unable to vote on a plan. However, if this is a converted case, all claims filed under the initial chapter shall be deemed filed and need not to be refiled. A secured creditor retains rights in its collateral regardless of whether that creditor files a Proof of Claim. Filing a Proof of Claim submits the creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a Proof of Claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial. The deadline for filing objections to claims will be established pursuant to Local Rule 3007-1(B)(1). Filing Deadline for a Creditor with a Foreign Address: The deadlines for filing claims set forth on the front of this notice apply to all creditors. If this notice has been mailed to a creditor at a foreign address, the creditor may file a motion requesting the court to extend the deadline. Claims should be filed using the Official B10 Proof of Claim form available at any bankruptcy clerk's office or on the court's website at: www.flsb.uscourts.gov , and delivered or mailed to the clerk's office address listed on the front of this notice. To receive acknowledgment of receipt by the clerk, enclose a copy of the claim and an adequate sized stamped self addressed envelope. As an alternative filing method, any creditor with internet access may file a proof of claim electronically and print a copy of the claim at the time of filing by using the electronic claims filing program available on the court website: www.flsb.uscourts.gov . Do not include this notice with any filing you make with the court.
Discharge of Debts	Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d). Unless the court orders otherwise, however, the discharge will not be effective until completion of all payments under the plan. A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor except as provided in the plan. If you believe that a debt owed to you is not dischargeable under Bankruptcy Code § 523(a)(2), (4), or (6), you must start a lawsuit by filing a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the "Deadline to File a Complaint to Determine Dischargeability of Certain Debts" listed on the front side. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the complaint and any required filing fee by that Deadline. If you believe that the debtor is not entitled to receive a discharge under Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d)(3), you must file a complaint with the required filing fee in the bankruptcy clerk's office not later than the first date set for the hearing on confirmation of the plan. You will be sent another notice informing you of that date. Writing a letter to the court or judge is not sufficient. An adversary complaint must be filed in accordance with the applicable rules. Prior to receiving a discharge, the debtor must file and serve the Local Form "Debtor's Statement Re 11 U.S.C. Section 522(q)(1) Applicability, etc., and Notice of Deadline to Object", as required under Local Rule 4004-3(A)(9).
Exempt Property	The debtor is permitted by law to keep certain property as exempt. Exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors, even if the debtor's case is converted to chapter 7. The debtor must file a list of all property claimed as exempt. If you believe that an exemption claimed by the debtor is not authorized by law, you may file an objection to that exemption. The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive the objection by the "Deadline to Object to Exemptions" listed on the front side.
Bankruptcy Clerk's Office	Documents filed conventionally in paper may be filed at any bankruptcy clerk's office. Documents may be viewed in electronic format at any clerk's office public terminal (no charge for viewing) or via PACER ON THE INTERNET (charges apply). Case filing information and unexpired deadline dates can be obtained by calling the Voice Case Information System: (305)536-5979 or (800)473-0226.
